MEDIA INFORMATION

On behalf of the Anaheim Ducks, welcome to the 2019-20 National Hockey League (NHL) season. We hope to make your job covering the Ducks as easy and pleasant as possible. In order to help you achieve your goals in the most efficient manner, we have a few procedural guidelines of which you should be aware.

Media credentials are issued to working media only. All season and individual game credential holders should enter through the press entrance off Douglass Avenue (Northeast corner of the building). The press entrance and press will-call opens two and one-half hours prior to all games. Credentials are non-transferable, and unauthorized use will subject bearer to ejection from Honda Center and result in a loss of credential privileges.

Season media passes will be issued to recognized newspapers, magazines, television and established radio stations as well as websites affiliated with major broadcast outlets. Requests for credentials must be made on company letterhead. Credentials will be distributed on an individual basis. Season pass holders must notify the communications office of their intentions to cover a game in order to reserve press seating.

Individual game credentials should be requested in writing through the communications department (e-mail) a minimum of 24 hours prior to game time or by 2:00 p.m. Friday for all Saturday or Sunday contests. You can email requests to agilchrist@anaheimducks.com. Pre-arranged passes must be picked up at the press entrance located inside the northeast entrance. Credentials will be issued on an availability-only basis.

Credentials are good for admittance to the arena, press box, press dining room and both locker rooms. We suggest coming to the morning skate if you need an interview before the game. Both teams' locker rooms will open five minutes after the last player has left the ice, following the game's conclusion. Your cooperation is asked in maintaining a working atmosphere. ABSOLUTELY NO AUTOGRAPHS ALLOWED DURING MEDIA ACCESS PERIODS.

Interviews that need advance preparation or special accommodation can be arranged by contacting the Ducks communications department. This includes all live television interviews for pre and post-game.

Photo credentials will also be issued in the same manner as other passes, with camera positions assigned by team photographer Debora Robinson; photographers should check in with Debora in the press dining room prior to game time.

Photocopy services are available by contacting the Ducks communications department prior to the game.

On game days when the Ducks choose to practice, they will take the ice at 10:00 or 10:30 a.m. The visiting team's practice usually starts at 11:30 a.m. Please call the Ducks communications department if there is a question regarding either team's practice schedule. ALL requests for in-between period interviews must be made by the time of the Ducks' skate that morning.

We hope this outline of procedures and guidelines will assist you in your coverage of the Ducks and the National Hockey League at Honda Center for the 2019-20 season. Please don't hesitate to contact us if you need any additional assistance. We look forward to working with you this season.

Sincerely,

Alex Gilchrist
Director, Media & Communications

SUSAN & HENRY SAMUELI

ANAHEIM DUCKS HOCKEY CLUB, LLC & ANAHEIM ARENA MANAGEMENT, LLC

EDUCATION AND PROFESSIONAL CAREERS:

Susan Samueli was born and raised in Los Angeles, CA. She earned her B.A. degree in Mathematics from UC Berkeley in 1972. From 1972 to 1985 she was with IBM Corporation, where she worked initially as a software programmer in the Federal Systems Division, Westlake Village, CA, and then as a Systems Engineer in the National Marketing Division, Los Angeles, CA, providing technical marketing and sales support for IBM's mid-range computer systems. In 1985 she left IBM and focused her energy on raising her children, at which time she developed a keen interest in integrative health care, studying in the areas of nutrition, homeopathy and Chinese herbs. Susan subsequently received a Ph.D. degree in nutrition from the American Holistic College of Nutrition in 1993 and a diploma in Homeopathy from the British Institute of Homeopathy in 1994.

Henry Samueli was born in Buffalo, NY and grew up in Los Angeles, CA. He earned his B.S., M.S. and Ph.D. degrees in Electrical Engineering from UCLA in 1975, 1976 and 1980, respectively. From 1980 to 1985 he was employed in various engineering and management positions in the Electronics and Technology Division of TRW, Inc., a military communications defense contractor now part of Northrop-Grumman. Since 1985 he has been a professor in the Electrical and Computer Engineering Department at UCLA, and since 2003 he has also served as a Distinguished Adjunct Professor in the Electrical Engineering and Computer Science Department at UC Irvine. In 1991 he co-founded Broadcom Corporation, a global leader in providing semiconductor solutions for wired and wireless communications. Henry took a leave of absence from UCLA in 1995 and joined Broadcom full-time as Chief Technology Officer (CTO). In 2016 Broadcom was acquired by Avago Technologies Limited and renamed Broadcom Inc. Henry retired as CTO of Broadcom in 2018 and now serves as Chairman of the Board of Broadcom Inc.

SPORTS AND ENTERTAINMENT OWNERSHIP:

In 2003 Susan and Henry took over management of the Honda Center sports and entertainment venue in Anaheim, CA and in 2005 they purchased the Anaheim Ducks National Hockey League franchise from the Walt Disney Company. In 2007 the Anaheim Ducks became the first California team ever to win the Stanley Cup championship. Henry is a member of the Executive Committee of the NHL Board of Governors. The Samuelis also own the San Diego Gulls American Hockey League franchise, which serves as the Ducks' minor-league affiliate in San Diego, CA.

COMMUNITY SERVICE AND PHILANTHROPY:

The success of Broadcom has provided Susan and Henry the opportunity to support many worthwhile nonprofit organizations. After Broadcom went public in 1998 they created the Samueli Foundation and to date they have gifted over $600 million primarily in the areas of Science, Technology, Engineering and Mathematics (STEM) Education, Integrative Health, Youth and Social Services, and Jewish Culture. In 2012 they joined the Giving Pledge, initiated by Warren Buffett and Bill and Melinda Gates, whose members pledge the majority of their wealth to philanthropy.

Susan serves on the Board of the Orangewood Children's Foundation, a leading provider of foster youth services in Orange County, CA, and she is a member of the Board of Trustees of the Samueli Academy, an innovative public Charter High School in Santa Ana, CA that focuses on project-based STEM learning for community, underserved and foster youth. She also serves on the Advisory Board of the Susan Samueli Integrative Health Institute at UC Irvine which provides education, research and clinical care built around integrative practices and emphasizes whole-person healing and wellness. Henry serves on the Dean's Advisory Board of both the Henry Samueli School of Engineering and Applied Science at UCLA and the Henry Samueli School of Engineering at UC Irvine. Both Susan and Henry serve on the Advisory Board of the Susan and Henry Samueli College of Health Sciences at UC Irvine.

In 2019 they opened the Great Park Ice complex in Irvine, CA which features four ice sheets, including FivePoint Arena that seats 2,500 spectators. The 280,000-square-foot complex offers a variety of ice sports including youth and adult hockey programs, figure skating, curling, broomball, sled hockey, public open skating and is also the official practice facility for the Anaheim Ducks.

BOB MURRAY

EXECUTIVE VICE PRESIDENT AND GENERAL MANAGER
ANAHEIM DUCKS HOCKEY CLUB, LLC

Bob Murray enters his 45th consecutive year in the National Hockey League, his 12th as Executive Vice President and General Manager of the Anaheim Ducks. He won the NHL General Manager of the Year award in 2013-14 and has been a finalist for the honor three times. He also served as an Assistant General Manager for Team Canada during the 2016 World Cup of Hockey.

On Jan. 6, 2019 vs. Edmonton, Murray became the fifth person in NHL history to both play and manage 1,000 career regular season NHL games. He joined Bobby Clarke, Bob Gainey, Bob Pulford and Doug Wilson in the 1,000/1,000 club. Murray has now managed 1,039 NHL games (851 with Anaheim, 188 with Chicago) and played in 1,008 NHL contests (all with Chicago).

Under Murray's guidance, the Ducks have posted 100+ standings points in five of the last six seasons, won division titles in five of the last seven seasons and made playoff appearances in six of the last seven campaigns. The Ducks are the NHL's most successful team drafting players into the NHL since 2010, having done so without a top-five overall selection (Anaheim has not selected in the top five since 2005, qualifying for the playoffs in 11 of 14 seasons since then). Anaheim has selected 58 players since 2010, with a league-leading 51.7% (30 players, tied with Boston) reaching the NHL (the league average is 38.0%).

Murray's 2016-17 Ducks were the seventh different team in NHL history to win five consecutive division titles and the only team to win the Pacific Division five consecutive years since its creation in 1993-94. Anaheim defeated Calgary and Edmonton in the first two rounds of the Stanley Cup Playoffs before falling to Nashville in the Conference Final. It was Anaheim's fourth trip to the Conference Final since Murray joined the team in 2006.

In 2014-15, Anaheim finished with the best record in the Western Conference (51-24-7, 109 points), becoming the first team since 2011-12 (Vancouver) to post consecutive 50+ win seasons. Anaheim defeated Winnipeg and Calgary in the first two rounds of the postseason before falling in the Conference Final to Chicago (seven games). The 2013-14 team finished with a record of 54-20-8, the best mark in franchise history. Anaheim posted the top record in the Western Conference for the first time in club history that season, setting season records for standings points (116), wins (54) and win/points percentage (.707), while also leading the league in goals (263). The 2012-13 club finished the regular season with the third-best record in the NHL (30-12-6, second in the West).

Murray was named to his current position Nov. 12, 2008 after spending the previous three-plus seasons as the club's Senior Vice President of Hockey Operations. In that role, much of Murray's work behind the scenes led directly to many successful trades and other player transactions by Anaheim. During that three-year period, the Ducks won a Stanley Cup (2007), a Pacific Division title (2007), and qualified for the playoffs each season. Murray was the General Manager of the Portland Pirates (Anaheim's AHL affiliate) from 2005-06 through 2007-08. The Pirates went to the Conference Finals twice (2006 & 2008), appearing in six playoff rounds. Between 2005 and 2008 (three seasons), Anaheim and Portland combined to win 10 and appear in 14 playoff rounds, both the most of any organization in hockey.

Prior to joining the Ducks in July 2005, Murray worked as a professional scout with the Vancouver Canucks from 1999-05. Murray's scouting expertise helped to build teams that recorded 100+ point seasons two years in a row (2002-03 and 2003-04) and advanced to the Stanley Cup Playoffs four seasons in a row (2001-04). Before his stint in Vancouver, he served as a scouting consultant for Anaheim during the 1998-99 season.

Murray was a member of the Chicago Blackhawks organization for 25 years, serving as General Manager from 1997-99. He was named the sixth General Manager in team history July 3, 1997. He was promoted to the post after serving as Assistant General Manager under Bob Pulford for two seasons. Before joining upper-management, Murray was named the Director of Player Personnel in 1991 and was largely responsible for the club's NHL Draft selections over eight seasons.

Drafted by the Blackhawks in 1974, Murray spent his entire 1,008-game, 15-year career in a Chicago uniform. He became just the fourth player in Blackhawks history to reach the 1,000-game plateau in 1989-90. In addition, he became the first defenseman in club history to appear in 100 postseason contests, reaching the mark during the 1990 Stanley Cup Playoffs. In all, Murray scored 132-382=514 points and currently ranks third in all-time points among Blackhawks defensemen (17th overall in club history). He was named to both the 1981 and 1983 NHL All-Star Games. Murray retired at the conclusion of the 1989-90 season. Known for his work ethic, intelligence and determination as a player, Murray remained with the organization as a Professional Scout following his retirement in 1990.

Bob and his wife, Betsy, have four children: Kevin, Amanda, Andrew and Katie; and four grandchildren: Mikayla, Aisley, Lily and Kaden.

ANAHEIM DUCKS HOCKEY CLUB, LLC

Tim Ryan is in his 15th season as Executive Vice President/Chief Operating Officer for the Anaheim Ducks. Over the last 14 years, he has successfully led the Ducks' business efforts to record growth, while initiating numerous community, fan-friendly and youth hockey programs that have increased the popularity of the sport in the Southern California market.

Ryan has served more than 27 years at Honda Center and has more than 41 years in arena management and event creation experience. In addition to his duties with the NHL club, he serves as President and Chief Executive Officer of Anaheim Arena Management, LLC (AAM), the management company of Honda Center. In his role, Ryan oversees one of the premier entertainment and sports venues in the world. Over the years, Honda Center has repeatedly ranked among the top 10 arenas in the world for annual live entertainment.

Ryan has also led significant efforts in renovations around Honda Center, assuring it remains one of the world's top-of-the-line sports and entertainment venues, while continuing to elevate the live game experience. Currently, the arena seating is in the process of being replaced with the second phase completed in July 2019.

Through strategic planning, creative business development and event production, Ryan ensures Honda Center is consistently booked with the world's top names in live entertainment and world-class sporting events. Since the start of 2019, the venue hosted acts such as KISS, P!NK, Justin Timberlake, Elton John, Real Street Festival, Marc Anthony, and more. In August, Honda Center hosted its first ever music festival featuring A$AP Rocky, Cardi B, Migos, Miguel and Meek Mill with over 41,000 in attendance over the two-day event. Since 1993, more than 41 million people have been entertained at Honda Center, enjoying over 4,100 events.

DUCKS AND HONDA CENTER IN THE COMMUNITY

COMMUNITY INVOLVEMENT

ANAHEIM DUCKS COMMITMENT TO THE COMMUNITY

Commitment to community is one of the fundamental values of the Anaheim Ducks organization. The Ducks strive to be actively involved in the local community, ranging from outreach and fundraising events, in-kind donations, charity tickets and the dedicated involvement of the players, coaches, broadcasters, staff, Orange Alliance Members, corporate partners and fans.

Under the guidance and example set forth by our owners, Henry and Susan Samueli, philanthropic support and giving is not only our responsibility as a member of the Southern California community, but something that is ingrained in the identity as a team, staff and fan base.

ANAHEIM DUCKS FOUNDATION

The mission of the Anaheim Ducks Foundation is to facilitate and support programs that produce positive change for children and families throughout Southern California by providing educational opportunities, broadening access to the sport of hockey and addressing the health and wellness needs of our community. Through funds raised, the Ducks are able to fund the Anaheim Ducks S.C.O.R.E. program, Learn to Play and Top Flight youth hockey initiatives and provide grants to a variety of local nonprofits.

S.C.O.R.E. (SCHOLASTIC CURRICULUM OF RECREATION & EDUCATION)

Impacting over 300,000 students since its inception in 2005, the S.C.O.R.E. program was developed to provide students access to valuable educational resources. Ducks S.C.O.R.E. provides physical education materials, science programming and school supplies while supporting teachers and educators with resources to foster a positive classroom environment, using hockey as a vehicle to teach and create opportunity.

LEARN TO PLAY

Learn to Play powered by Ryan Getzlaf offers first-time hockey players the chance to get on the rink in full hockey equipment for free. Players receive instruction on the basics of hockey and skating. Participants in Anaheim Ducks Learn to Play are provided with full equipment to use for the four-week session. Since the start of the Learn to Play program in 2013, 14,800 children have laced up their skates and hit the ice and the Ducks have invested more than $3.3 million into the program. In addition, Getzlaf generously sponsors a program in which any child who completes a Learn to Play program and signs-up for a RINKS in-house league receives a complimentary first set of gear to start their hockey career, with more than 5,800 sets being donated to date.

TOP FLIGHT

The Top Flight Hockey Program is dedicated to participants with special needs and open to players of all ages and abilities. The League runs group practices and clinics as well as games weekly. Group practices focus on helping participants establish basic hockey skills such as shooting, passing and stickhandling.

JOHN AHLERS

TELEVISION PLAY-BY-PLAY

John Ahlers is in the midst of his 18th season as the Anaheim Ducks' play-by-play voice on Fox Sports Prime Ticket. He has called 1,135 regular-season Ducks games since joining the club prior to the 2002-03 season along with numerous NHL games for NBC Sports Network over the previous nine seasons. Ahlers called his 1,000th regular-season Ducks game on Nov. 12, 2017 vs. Tampa Bay.

Each season, Ahlers is a significant contributor to the team's award-winning Ducks S.C.O.R.E. program, an educational initiative that impacts over 25,000 elementary school students. He teaches the students the value of teamwork in sports, in school and in life. Using team-building exercises that relate to hockey, this interactive presentation demonstrates the importance to work effectively with others to achieve success in all endeavors. Ahlers can also be seen and heard at many of the Ducks community relations events, where he works as host and emcee.

Prior to joining the Ducks, Ahlers served as radio play-by-play voice for the Tampa Bay Lightning from 1999-02. A 31-year broadcast veteran with 2,343 games behind the microphone (including 1,494 in the NHL), he also worked as host of the Lightning's television pre-game show and Lightning Weekly, a magazine format program aired on Florida's Sunshine Television Network.

Prior to his stint with Tampa Bay, Ahlers spent five seasons as the television and radio voice of the International Hockey League's Detroit Vipers. During that time, he also worked as broadcaster of the IHL Game of the Week and Turner Cup Finals for Fox Sports Net. While with the Vipers he received numerous awards, including the IHL Broadcaster of the Year in 1995 and Emmys for Best Sports Broadcasts in 1995 and 1998. With Anaheim, Ahlers won an Emmy in 2003 for Best Live Sports Broadcast during Game 4 against Detroit in the first round of the Stanley Cup Playoffs.

A graduate of Michigan State University, Ahlers has the call for NFL and NCAA college football games on SportsUSA Radio Network for the eighth consecutive season in 2019. He has also served as the voice of the Salt Lake Golden Eagles (IHL) and the Louisville IceHawks (ECHL), as well as Michigan State and Colorado College hockey.

John and his wife, Cindi, were married in the summer of 2008.

BRIAN HAYWARD

TELEVISION COLOR ANALYST

The original television analyst for the Anaheim Ducks, Brian Hayward is in his 27th season with the club. He has called 1,632 regular-season Ducks games since joining the team and celebrated his 1,000th Ducks broadcast on Jan. 16, 2011 vs. Edmonton. Over the past 26 years, he has earned a reputation as one of hockey's most articulate and informative analysts. Hayward has also been an active member of the Orange County community since joining the Ducks, participating in numerous charitable events on behalf of the club.

Hayward has previously called national games for NBC, ABC, ESPN, ESPN2 and CBC. He appeared as an analyst for "NHL on NBC," which included work at the 2014 Stadium Series Game at Dodger Stadium and the 2006 Olympic Winter Games in Torino, Italy. He also served as color commentator for the 2004 World Cup of Hockey on ESPN's telecasts of the event. In 1998, he was a roving reporter during the Stanley Cup Final for ESPN, where he had the distinction of interviewing President Bill Clinton during a game in Washington.

After earning All-American honors as a goaltender at Cornell in 1982, Hayward went on to play in the NHL with the Winnipeg Jets, Montreal Canadiens, Minnesota North Stars and San Jose Sharks. In 1984-85, Hayward established a franchise record by winning 33 games with the Jets.

In Montreal, he teamed with Patrick Roy to win the William M. Jennings Trophy three consecutive years (1987-89) as the team allowing the fewest goals over the course of the regular season. Hayward also appeared in the Stanley Cup Final in 1986 with Montreal and 1991 with Minnesota.

A member of the inaugural San Jose Sharks in 1991-92, Hayward gained experience as an analyst on select Sharks games while sidelined with injuries. When a back injury forced a premature end to his playing career, he became a full-time broadcaster with the Ducks.

A native of Toronto, Ontario, Hayward holds a degree in business management from Cornell. He resides in Anaheim Hills with his wife, Angela. Their daughter, Courtney, and her husband, Bobby, currently live in Manhattan Beach.

Carroll joined the Ducks after spending the previous two seasons handling the radio play-by-play duties for the New Orleans Brass of the ECHL, including serving in the communications, media relations and corporate sales departments. He also called games for the New Orleans Zephyrs, a Triple-A affiliate of the Houston Astros, from 1996-98. In addition, he handled play-by-play for the New Orleans Storm professional soccer team.

CALIFORNIA REPUBLIC

THE NAME, LOGOS & COLORS

The official team colors and logo were unveiled on June 7, 1993.

HOW IT ALL BEGAN

On Oct. 2, 1992, Walt Disney Pictures released the hit movie "The Mighty Ducks" and created a new wave of excitement among the nation's youth and the ice hockey community. Starring Emilio Estevez and a band of kids who learn to play and win as a team, "The Mighty Ducks" grossed $51 million at the box office and served as the inspiration for the name of the Walt Disney Company's NHL club.

The original official team colors and logo were unveiled June 7, 1993, and Mighty Ducks merchandise immediately propelled into one of the top sellers in all of professional sports.

Purple, jade, silver and white were chosen as the team's colors while an attractive crest featuring a duck head-shaped hockey mask was chosen to give the club its own unique identity. As a testament to the logo's popularity, the original Ducks jersey was named the "most fashionable" uniform in all of sports at the inaugural ESPY Awards in 1997.

A NEW LOOK UNVEILED

In the spring of 2005, Henry and Susan Samueli entered into an agreement with the Walt Disney Company to purchase the Ducks franchise. In the Samueli's first year of ownership, the Ducks set then-franchise records for overall wins (43) and standings points (98).

On June 22, 2006, a new era began for the franchise as the team became officially known as the Anaheim Ducks. In addition, a new logo and color scheme was unveiled. The new look and identity of the Ducks were a collaborative effort, mixing opinions of fans as well as Ducks players, ownership and management. All parties involved unanimously decided to go beyond simply altering the original concept of an aggressive duck character.

In shaping the design, the focus was sharpened to create an overall image that expressed excitement, speed and a competitive edge. In addition, a classic color palette of black and metallic gold was developed, with an accent of orange as a metaphorical link to the team's Orange County home.

The result was a strong, typographic mark anchored by a stylized "D" that echoed the image of a duck's foot or footprint. The custom typography had a powerful forward momentum and was made up of metallic gold letters with orange drop-shadows and a black holding shape. The uniforms were an evolution of the earlier sweater design but with gold, white and orange sweeping stripes influenced by the curves of the "D" in the Ducks logo. Set with a new look for the 2006-07 season, the Ducks made history and won the Stanley Cup.

THIRD JERSEYS

Entering the 2019-20 season, the Ducks had appeared in six third jerseys (each pictured), beginning with a cartoon Duck breaking through a sheet of ice. The club moved to a more classic approach with its next two sweaters, using black with dark plum, silver and white accenting as its color palate for the alternate jersey worn during the 2003-04 and 2005-06 seasons.

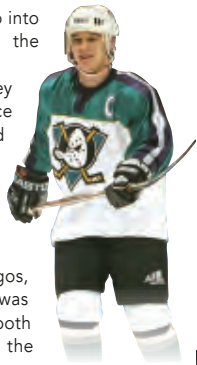

The fourth third jersey debuted on Nov. 26, 2010. A black sweater with orange sleeves and side panels, it featured the "D" foot placed prominently on the chest. The shoulder patch integrated the original Mighty Ducks logo into a new oval mark, linking the team's past and present.

The fifth alternate jersey made its initial appearance on Oct. 16, 2015 and featured the original Mighty Ducks logo set on an orange colored jersey accented with gold, black and white trim. In a reversal of logos, the primary webbed "D" was displayed as a patch on both shoulders to represent the current Ducks team.

Anaheim's third jersey in 2018-19 featured the original Mighty Ducks crest with eggplant and jade striping from the Ducks iconic look of the team's inaugural 1993-94 season. The sweater incorporated orange in the crossed hockey sticks of the team's original mark and featured silver as a primary accent color, paying tribute to the team's 25th anniversary season in 2018-19.

STADIUM SERIES

The Anaheim Ducks and Los Angeles Kings wore specially designed jerseys and uniforms for the 2014 Coors Light NHL Stadium Series™ contest at Dodger Stadium on Jan. 25, 2014. Anaheim's jersey featured a chrome-treated "D" logo, unique to the 2014 Coors Light NHL Stadium Series™ contest and inspired from the chrome details in the NHL shield. The Ducks Stadium Series jersey was orange, currently an accent color in the club's primary logo.

Anaheim's orange jersey for the game included enlarged player numbers for improved visibility in an outdoor venue, as well as a shoulder logo to signify the geographic rivalry between the Ducks and Kings. An interlocked "OC" logo appeared on the left shoulder of the Ducks' Stadium Series jersey. The NHL Stadium Series jersey was designed with creative input from the Ducks, Reebok and the NHL.

FROM THIRD TO PRIMARY

Beginning with the 2014-15 season, the club's 2010-14 third jersey was transformed into the new primary sweater. A white "road" version of the jersey was added. Both versions of the jersey now incorporate white laces and permanent integration with the "D" on both sweaters.

TEAM HISTORY

The San Diego Gulls took the ice on Oct. 10, 2015 to open their inaugural American Hockey League season in San Diego, CA. One of seven teams in the AHL's recently created Pacific Division and one of five still playing dating to the inaugural 2015-16 season, the Gulls have since posted an all-time record of 154-95-23 and 331 points (.608 points percentage). San Diego leads the Pacific Division in all-time wins, points and points percentage since the division's inception in 2015.

The Gulls have qualified for the Calder Cup Playoffs in three of their four seasons, one of three AHL clubs to advance to the Division Finals on three-or-more occasions since the inception of the current division format in 2015 (also Toronto and Hershey). San Diego is the only team in the Pacific Division to advance beyond the First Round on multiple occasions. The Gulls have won the most playoff series (4) and games (17) among Pacific Division clubs.

The Gulls led the AHL in attendance in 2018-19 (9,021 avg.) for the second straight season after becoming the first team in 10 seasons to usurp the Hershey Bears atop the league's attendance charts in 2017-18 (9,305 avg.). San Diego has also been named the AHL's Team of the Year in 2016-17 in addition to the ticket sales department of the year from 2015-18.

Professional hockey in San Diego has a rich history, dating to the San Diego Skyhawks of the Pacific Coast Hockey League in 1944. Since then, San Diego has been home to several professional teams and leagues throughout the years, including the aforementioned Skyhawks (1944-50), Gulls of the Western Hockey League (1966-74), Mariners of the World Hockey Association (1974-77) and Pacific Hockey League (1977-78), Hawks of the PHL (1978-79) and Gulls of the International Hockey League (1990-95), West Coast Hockey League (1995-03) and ECHL (2003-06).

Pechanga Arena San Diego, the Gulls' home venue, opened on Nov. 17, 1966 with a 4-1 San Diego Gulls (WHL) victory over the Seattle Totems. Pechanga Arena San Diego (formerly San Diego Sports Arena, iPayOne Center and Valley View Casino Center) has housed professional hockey, basketball, indoor soccer, arena football, tennis and numerous entertainment events. A central figure in San Diego sports history, Pechanga Arena San Diego Center has recently seen significant arena upgrades, most notably a new state-of-the-art scoreboard prior to the Gulls' 2015-16 campaign and a new LED lighting system in 2017-18.

goals by rookies for the same team (Steel, 2, and Kiefer Sherwood) in the same game had not happened in the NHL since Mar. 13, 1927 when four rookies scored unassisted goals for the Blackhawks in a 4-0 win over the Bruins...in addition, the 2018-19 campaign was the first in franchise history to feature eight different rookies score their first career goal in the same season, one more than the previous benchmark set in 1997-98.

John Gibson finished the season with a 26-22-8 record, two shutouts, a 2.84 GAA and .917 SV% in 58 games... Gibson led the NHL in shorthanded saves (285), ranked sixth in saves (1,685) and shots against (1,838), and 10th in appearances...Gibson, who was also tied for fourth among goaltenders in March wins (8-3-0), tied for ninth in most appearances with two goals-or-less allowed (29) during the 2018-19 campaign...Gibson collected his 100th career NHL win in Anaheim's 4-3 victory over Vancouver Nov. 21 to become the fourth Ducks goaltender to reach the milestone, joining Jean-Sebastien Giguere (206), Guy Hebert (173) and Jonas Hiller (162)...Gibson also became the fastest to 100 wins with Anaheim in 196 games, besting Hiller (214 games), Giguere (248) and Hebert (254).

RECORD-SETTING PERFORMANCE:

Ryan Miller surpassed John Vanbiesbrouck (374) Feb. 17 vs. Washington for the all-time lead among U.S.-born goaltenders in wins (375)...Vanbiesbrouck had been the all-time leader since Jan. 6, 2000, when he passed Tom Barrasso with his 349th career win with the Flyers over the NY Islanders...both goalies remained active yet Vanbiesbrouck did not relinquish the lead until Miller tied him Dec. 2, 2018...Miller, who also ranks 16th on the all-time wins list for NHL goaltenders, owns a 378-275-81 record with 44 shutouts, a 2.61 GAA and .915 SV% in 757 career NHL games...on Feb. 19 at Minnesota, Miller stopped all 31 shots to post his 44th career shutout, second among U.S.-born goaltenders all-time...that night Miller also became the fourth goaltender since 2013-14 to record a shutout at the age of 38 or older... below is a list of the top five U.S.-born goaltenders in all-time wins.

THE COMEBACK:

The Ducks rallied from a 5-1 deficit to defeat the Washington Capitals, 6-5, Dec. 2 at Capital One Arena...the comeback marked the first time in club history the Ducks rallied from four goals down to win on the road (and first such comeback win in regulation)...the only other instance came at home in overtime, when Anaheim rallied from 4-0 down to beat Winnipeg 5-4 (Mar. 31, 2014)...the Ducks became the first road team to accomplish the feat in regulation since Colorado Mar. 9, 1999 at Florida, and the first team to win in regulation after trailing by four since the Penguins did so against Atlanta Oct. 27, 2005...the four-goal comeback win also marked the first time in which a team (home or road) overcame such a deficit against a defending Stanley Cup Champion...with 19 saves in relief and the victory, Ryan Miller tied John Vanbiesbrouck (374) for the all-time lead among U.S.-born goaltenders in wins.

POSTSEASON NOTES IN PLAYOFF SECTION

THE 2017-18 SEASON:

The Anaheim Ducks completed the regular season 44-25-13 for 101 points, finishing second in the Pacific Division, tied for fourth in the Western Conference and tied for eighth in the NHL (MIN)…with 101 points, Anaheim became the only NHL team to post 100+ points in each season from 2013-18.

THE FINISH:

The Ducks finished the regular season as one of the NHL's top teams, winning their last five regular-season games (tying with WPG for the longest active streak to end the season) and their last seven home games (second longest to WPG, 9)….the Ducks also went 10-1-1 with a .875 points percentage (second in the NHL to WPG) in their final 12 games…Anaheim also went 17-5-2 over the last 24 games (fourth in NHL) and 25-10-4 after the bye week (Jan. 13, tied for fourth in NHL)…over the last 47 regular-season games, the Ducks went 30-12-5 (also tied for fourth in NHL).

ON DEFENSE:

The Ducks finished the season allowing only 209 goals, third-best in the NHL…Anaheim was the NHL's top defensive team after the All-Star break, allowing only 73 goals in 32 games (league-leading 2.28 GAA), eight fewer than anyone else in the NHL (LA, 81 goals)...the Ducks got even stingier down the stretch, allowing only 49 goals in the last 24 games (leading-leading 2.04 GAA), 12 fewer than anyone else in the NHL (ARI, 61).

CLINCHED:

The Ducks clinched their sixth consecutive trip to the Stanley Cup Playoffs Apr. 4, equaling the second-longest streak in the NHL...only Pittsburgh had a longer streak with 12 (Minnesota also has six consecutive)...the Ducks entered 2018 playoffs with the most postseason wins in the Western Conference since 2014 (31-22) and rank tied for second in the NHL (Pittsburgh 40, New York Rangers 31).

RECORD-SETTING SEASON:

The Ducks established a franchise record with a .923 SV%, which co-led all NHL teams (NSH)...the previous team record for SV% in a single season was .921, set during the 1998-99 campaign... both Ryan Miller (.928) and John Gibson (.926) surpassed the individual single-season franchise record for SV% (.924, Jonas Hiller in 2010-11, Gibson in 2016-17)…Miller ranked fifth among NHL goaltenders in SV%, while Gibson ranked eighth in SV%, 10th in wins (31) and tied for ninth in shutouts (4)…from the All-Star break through the end of the regular season, Gibson led league netminders in GAA (1.95; min. 20 games) and SV% (.937; min. 20 games) to go along with a 14-4-2 record...Gibson concluded the regular season with a 21-7-3 record in his last 31 decisions.

POSTSEASON NOTES IN PLAYOFF SECTION

THE 2016-17 SEASON:

The Anaheim Ducks clinched the 2016-17 Pacific Division for the fifth straight season with a 46-23-13 record and 105 points…the Ducks were the seventh different team in NHL history to win five consecutive division titles, joining the Colorado/Quebec franchise (9 straight from 1995-03), Montreal (8 from 1975-82), Detroit (8 from 2001-09), Edmonton (6 from 1982-87), Dallas (5 from 1997-01) and Vancouver (5 from 2009-13)…Anaheim was also the only team to win the Pacific Division five consecutive years since its creation in 1993-94…the Ducks won the division after falling nine points back of first place on three separate occasions, most recently being nine points behind San Jose on March 15 (91 San Jose points to 82 Anaheim points)…the Ducks eclipsed 100 points for the fourth consecutive season, joining the Chicago Blackhawks as the only teams to accomplish the feat.

DOWN THE STRETCH:

The Ducks went 29-11-7 for 65 points after the Holiday Break (games resumed Dec. 27), the second-best record in the NHL (WSH had 74 points)…the Ducks also allowed only 99 goals over that stretch, 12 fewer than anyone else in the NHL (WSH, 111 allowed)…the Ducks' penalty killing also led the NHL at 88.1% over that stretch…Anaheim also went 14-2-3 for 31 points from the end of its bye week on Mar. 3 through the remainder of the schedule, ranking second the NHL in points and wins (STL, 15 wins and 32 points).

STRONG FINISH:

Anaheim became the fifth team in league history to conclude the regular season on a 14-game (11-0-3) point streak…the Ducks were the first team to accomplish the feat since Pittsburgh finished the 1992-93 season with points in 18 straight games…the other three teams included Montreal (21-game point streak in 1979-80), Philadelphia (14 in 1974-75) and Buffalo (14 in 1979-80)…the 11-0-3 run was the third-longest standings point streak in club history and tied for the second longest in the NHL this season (Columbus 16, Washington also had 14).

AT HONDA CENTER:

Anaheim's 29-8-4 record and 62 points at Honda Center tied franchise records in both categories…in addition, the club allowed the fewest goals at Honda Center in club history (82)…the Ducks won their final six home games (6-0-0) and closed the season with a 10-game point streak (9-0-1) at Honda Center.

CLINCHED:

Anaheim was one of six NHL teams and the only Pacific Division club that has qualified for the postseason in the previous five consecutive seasons, joining Pittsburgh (11 straight), Chicago (9), New York Rangers (7), St. Louis (6) and Minnesota (5)…during the five-year stretch, the Ducks posted a 227-104-45 record, leading the NHL in point percentage (.664) and points (499) and tied for second in wins.

ON THE LEADERBOARD:

The Ducks ranked third among NHL teams in goals against per game (2.40) and fewest goals allowed (197), and fourth in PK% (84.7%) in 2016-17…the Ducks also led the league in fewest goals allowed in the third period (55)…at Honda Center, Anaheim ranked third among NHL clubs in home standings points (62) and home wins (29-8-4) and second overall in fewest home goals allowed (82).

POSTSEASON NOTES IN PLAYOFF SECTION

A RECORD-BREAKING SEASON:

The Anaheim Ducks won their second Pacific Division title with a 30-12-6 record for 66 points, marking their best winning percentage in club history (.688 over 2007's .671)...the 2012-13 Ducks also had the best points percentage in club history on the road with a 14-5-5 (.688) mark, also ahead of the 2007 team (.598)...the Ducks finished second in the Western Conference and third overall in the NHL, behind only Chicago and Pittsburgh...the club's third-place finish in the overall league standings was the highest in club history.

COMEBACKS:

The Ducks rallied from deficits 15 times to win a game, including a 12-10-2 record when opponents scored first...Anaheim, Pittsburgh (11-6-0) and Chicago (10-5-4) were the first NHL teams since 2009-10 to have a record over .500 in such situations...the last team prior to 2012-13 was Bruce Boudreau's Washington Capitals (16-8-6 in 2009-10)...the Ducks lost only two games in regulation when scoring the first goal (18-2-4).

HOME SWEET HOME:

Anaheim won 13 consecutive games at Honda Center from Jan. 26-Mar. 20, 2013, the longest home streak in franchise history...the consecutive wins matched the NHL's second-longest home win streak since 2009-10 (also Washington at 13 games in 2010-11 under Boudreau...Detroit had an NHL-record 23-game streak in 2011-12)...Ryan Getzlaf's 9-21=30 points earned at home ranked tied for third in the NHL.

HERE TO STAY:

On Mar. 8 and Mar. 18, 2013, Ryan Getzlaf and Corey Perry signed respective eight-year contract extensions through the 2020-21 season...Getzlaf led Anaheim in points, goals and assists (15-34=49), while ranking tied for 10th among NHL leaders in scoring and tied for eighth in assists...Getzlaf had a career-high 12-game scoring streak at Honda Center from Feb. 1-Mar. 20, 2013, scoring 7-15=22 points (+12)...Perry ranked second among team leaders with 36 points, led in PPG (5) and co-led in goals (15) and GWG (5)...his five GWG ranked tied for sixth in the NHL.

#8:

Teemu Selanne recorded two four-point games in 2012-13, just the third and fourth time an NHL player 42 years or older accomplished the feat...Selanne scored 1-3=4 points on Feb. 9, 2013 at St. Louis (at 42 years, 326 days) and 2-2=4 points on Jan. 19, 2013 at Vancouver, joining Gordie Howe (42 years, 326 days) with 1-3=4 points for Detroit on Feb. 20, 1971 vs. Buffalo, and Tim Horton (42 years, 3 days) with 0-4=4 points for Pittsburgh on Jan. 15, 1972 vs. Philadelphia.

THE 2010-11 REGULAR SEASON

The Ducks finished the regular season with a record of 47-30-5 for 99 points, ranking second in the Pacific Division and fourth in the Western Conference...the club's 47 wins were tied for the second-most in franchise history (48 in 2006-07 and 47 in 2007-08).

ANOTHER STRONG FINISH

With 20 games left, the Ducks were 32-25-5 with 69 points and ranked 11th in the Western Conference...the Ducks went 15-5-0 over the last 20 games, climbing to fourth in the West…during that stretch, Corey Perry led the NHL in goals and points (19-12=31 with a +12)...the Ducks also won their last two games, 10 of their last 13 (10-3-0), and went 29-13-1 over the last 43 contests.

PERRY WINS THE HART

Corey Perry won the 2010-11 Hart Memorial Trophy as "the player adjudged to be the most valuable to his team"...Perry was the first player from a Southern California team to win the Hart Trophy since Hall-of-Famer Wayne Gretzky earned the honor with Los Angeles in 1989...Perry was also just the third player from a California team to win the Hart, joining Gretzky and San Jose's Joe Thornton (2006)…his 50 goals also won him the Maurice "Rocket" Richard Trophy as the league's top goal scorer...he tied for the league lead in GWG (11, also Ovechkin), finished third in points (98), and tied for fifth in PPG (14) and SHG (4)

MORE PERRY

Perry's 50 goals were the most by a Ducks player since Teemu Selanne scored 52 during the 1997-98 season…he became the third player in franchise history to reach the 50-goal mark and the first in the Western Conference to score 50-or-more since Calgary's Jarome Iginla in 2007-08 (50)...Perry established numerous franchise records in 2010-11, including game-winning goals, third-period goals, and shorthanded goals.

BETTER WITH AGE

Teemu Selanne (40 years old in 2010-11) recorded 31-49=80 points in 73 games…25 of Selanne's 31 goals came in a tied game or a one-goal contest...he was one of 15 NHL players to average over one point-per-game (eighth with 1.10)...the second-oldest player on that list was Tampa Bay's Martin St. Louis (35 yrs.) who averaged 1.21 points-per-game...Selanne ranked third in the NHL with 16 PPG and tied for eighth in overall scoring…only two players in NHL history age 40+ have recorded more points: (Gordie Howe (DET), 1968-98, 103 pts., 40 yrs, 276 days; Johnny Bucyk (BOS), 1975-76, 83 pts., 40 yrs, 234 days...on Mar. 28 vs. Colorado, he became the first player in history age 40+ to record three goals and five points (3-2=5) in a single game and the fourth-oldest player in NHL history to record a 3+ goal game (also Howe, Bucyk & Lidstrom).

VISNOVSKY LEADS THE PACK

Lubomir Visnovsky led NHL defensemen in scoring (68), assists (50) and points-per-game (.84), and ranked second in goals (18).

HILLER SHINES BEFORE SEASON CUT SHORT

Jonas Hiller went 26-16-5 with five shutouts, a 2.56 GAA and .924 SV% before having his season cut short due to vertigo symptoms...he made only three appearances following the All-Star break, missing a total of 27 games during the second half of the season…Hiller finished tied for fifth among NHL goaltenders in SV% (.924)…he was named to the NHL 2010-11 All-Star team, the lone goaltender to represent the Western Conference...he was the second Swiss-born player to appear in an NHL All-Star Game (also Mark Streit in 2009).

The Ducks had a franchise-record 11-game home winning streak from Dec. 8-Feb. 10…the 11-game winning streak at Honda Center was the second-longest in the NHL in 2009-10, behind only Washington's 14-game streak at Verizon Center.

2010 OLYMPICS:

Anaheim Ducks players combined for seven medals at the 2010 Olympic Winter Games, the most in the NHL (San Jose was second with five)…the seven medals also tied the most ever by an NHL team…the only other NHL teams to have as many as seven medal winners were the 1998 Pittsburgh Penguins and the 2002 Detroit Red Wings…Anaheim Ducks players combined for three gold (Scott Niedermayer, Ryan Getzlaf, Corey Perry for Canada), two silver (Bobby Ryan, Ryan Whitney for USA), and two bronze medals (Saku Koivu and Teemu Selanne for Finland) in Vancouver.

POSTSEASON NOTES IN PLAYOFF SECTION

THE SEASON:

The Ducks finished the 2008-09 regular season with a record of 42-33-7 for 91 points, ranking second in the Pacific Division and eighth in the Western Conference…Anaheim went 20-18-3 at home and 22-15-4 on the road in the regular season…the Ducks qualified for the playoffs for the fourth consecutive year and seventh time in club history (1997, 1999, 2003, 2006-2009).

THE STANDINGS CLIMB:

After 69 games, the Ducks were 32-31-6, 12th in the Western Conference standings (13th by winning percentage)...Anaheim rallied to make the playoffs by posting the best record in the NHL (by points and winning percentage) over the last 13 games, going 10-2-1 (21 points, .808 win%)…the Ducks joined only the 1996-97 Ottawa Senators and 2006-07 New York Rangers as teams to rally from as low as 12th place to make the playoffs with 13 games-or-less remaining in the season...the 1996-97 Senators were 12th through 69 games and finished seventh, while the 2006-07 Rangers were 12th through 72 games and finished sixth.

STRONG FINISH:

The Ducks finished the 2008-09 regular season winning five of the last seven games (5-1-1), 10 of 13 games (10-2-1) and were 11-3-1 in the last 15 overall...the Ducks scored at least one power play goal in eight of the last nine games (13-for-35, 37.1%) and went 20-for-48 (41.7%) over the final 13...in the last five contests, the Ducks were 9-for-16 on the power play for a 56.3% success rate...in addition, the club recorded 55 goals over the last 13 games (4.2 per game), scoring at least five goals in five of those contests.

ROAD SUCCESS:

Anaheim finished the 2008-09 regular season by recording points in a team-record nine consecutive road games (7-0-2; 16 points), besting the previous mark of eight games set earlier in the year (7-0-1; Oct. 21-Nov. 30)…the Ducks won six straight road games before losing in a shootout in the season finale on Apr. 11 at Phoenix, falling just one win shy of tying a club-record seven-game road winning streak from Nov. 28-Dec. 13, 2006…with a 22-15-4 road record, the Ducks tied a franchise record for most road wins in a single season (22-14-5, 2006-07).

LEADING THE WAY:

Center Ryan Getzlaf concluded the 2008-09 campaign ranked tied for third among NHL leaders in assists, tied for sixth in scoring (25-66=91) and tied for fourth in power play assists (28)…in addition to leading the club in assists and scoring, Getzlaf broke the Ducks single-season assist record (previously Kariya, 62) on his third helper of the night as part of a four-assist effort on Apr. 4 at San Jose...with two assists (0-2=2) on Apr. 2 at Vancouver, he set a single-season career high in assists (60), one game after establishing a personal best for points in a season on Mar. 31 at Edmonton (83).

HILLER STRONG IN NET:

Goaltender Jonas Hiller concluded the regular season ranked tied for seventh among NHL goaltenders in GAA (2.39) and tied for sixth in SV% (.919)...over his last 12 games, Hiller went 8-2-0 with a 2.44 GAA and .919 SV%, stopping 319-of-347 shots…prior to a 3-2 loss to San Jose on Apr. 5 at Honda Center, Hiller won seven consecutive decisions to tie Guy Hebert for the longest winning streak in franchise history (Hebert won seven straight games from Feb. 25-Mar. 22, 1995).

THE CAPTAIN LEADS THE WAY, AGAIN:

Scott Niedermayer concluded the regular season ranked second among all defensemen in scoring starting Jan. 1 (9-31=40, Mike Green of WSH had 23-27=50 points)…for the season, he ranked tied for third in the NHL in scoring and assists among defensemen...Niedermayer became Anaheim's all-time goal scorer among defensemen by surpassing Oleg Tverdovsky with his 46th goal as a Duck on Mar. 8 vs. Minnesota…Niedermayer recorded his third three-point night of the season (1-2=3) on Mar. 31 at EDM, tying a single-game career high.

MOVING ON UP:

Right wing Teemu Selanne scored his 1,200th career NHL point with his overtime goal on Mar. 18 vs. Nashville...Selanne became the 45th player in NHL history to reach the milestone and only the sixth player born outside North America to reach the mark, joining Jaromir Jagr, Stan Mikita, Jari Kurri, Mats Sundin and Paul Stastny…he became the franchise's all-time games played leader with his 617th game as a Duck on Jan. 31 at Colorado...with his appearance that afternoon at Pepsi Center, Selanne surpassed former teammate Steve Rucchin for sole possession of first in all-time Ducks appearances.

POSTSEASON NOTES IN PLAYOFF SECTION

THE SEASON:

The Ducks completed the 2007-08 regular season with a mark of 47-27-8 record for 102 points, finishing second in the Pacific Division and fourth in the Western Conference…Anaheim eclipsed the 100-point mark for the second consecutive year, while setting new season club records for the fewest goals allowed (184) and most home wins (28)…Anaheim finished the year winning eight of its last 10 (8-2-0) and 15 of the last 20 games (15-4-1)…at Honda Center, the club went 12-1-0 in the last 13 games and 19-3-1 over the final 23 home contests…the club clinched a playoff berth for the third consecutive year and sixth time in franchise history on Mar. 26 vs. Los Angeles in a 2-1 shootout triumph.

DUCKS SELL OUT THE SEASON:

The Ducks' sellout vs. Phoenix on Apr. 6 (17,269) marked the club's 40th in 40 games at Honda Center in 2007-08, a complete sellout for the regular season…it was just the second time a local NHL team (Southern California market) had sold out a full (non-lockout) regular season…the 1991-92 Los Angeles Kings were the only other such team to do so at the 16,005-seat Forum…the Ducks set franchise attendance records last season for sellouts (40), average attendance (17,195) and percent capacity (100.12%)…the Ducks broke the team record for consecutive regular season sellouts on Feb. 22 against the St. Louis Blues when they surpassed the previous record of 51 straight regular season sellouts set from Dec. 22, 1993-Oct. 20, 1995…the Ducks finished the regular season with a sellout streak of 74 games, the third-longest active regular season sellout streak among U.S.-based NHL teams (behind only Minnesota and the NY Rangers).

WINNING AT HONDA CENTER:

The Ducks finished 28-9-4 at Honda Center in 2007-08, establishing a new franchise record for home wins in the regular season…the previous team record of 26 home wins was established during the 2005-06 season (26-10-5) and matched in the 2006-07 campaign (26-6-9)…the Ducks won a franchise-record 10 consecutive games at Honda Center from Feb. 17-Mar. 26, marking the longest home winning streak in the NHL in 2007-08.

THE TOP 10 LIST:

J.S. Giguere was one of only three goaltenders in the NHL in 2007-08 to rank among the top 10 in wins, goals-against average and save percentage…Giguere ranked second in GAA (2.12), third in SV% (.922) and tied for seventh in wins (35)…the only other two goaltenders who ranked among the top 10 in all three categories were New Jersey's Martin Brodeur and Minnesota's Niklas Backstrom.

HILLER SHINES:

Ducks goaltender Jonas Hiller closed the regular season on a strong note…from Mar. 1 through the end of the regular season, Hiller ranked second in the NHL with a .952 SV% (stopping 217-of-228 shots) and 1.55 GAA (11 GA/426 MIN) among goaltenders that played in at least five games (Hiller was 4-3-0 in those games).

WINNING WAYS:

Randy Carlyle (138-74-34) became Anaheim's winningest head coach in franchise history with a 2-1 victory over the New Jersey Devils on Feb. 8 at Prudential Center…Carlyle surpassed Ron Wilson's club record of 120 wins as a Ducks head coach with win No. 121 in his 223rd game behind the bench with Anaheim.

LEADERS BY ADDITION:

The Ducks went 20-5-1 after the return of right wing Teemu Selanne on Feb. 5 against the New York Islanders at Nassau Coliseum…the Ducks also had similar success when they welcomed the return of defenseman Scott Niedermayer and arrival of center Doug Weight…the Ducks owned the best winning percentage in the NHL after Selanne's return on Feb. 5 (.788) and the best winning percentage following Niedermayer's return on Dec. 16 (.708)…below is a closer look:

POSTSEASON NOTES IN PLAYOFF SECTION

PLAYOFF BOUND

The Ducks finished the regular season with a record of 43-27-12, good for 98 standings points and a sixth place finish in the Western Conference…the club clinched a playoff spot on Apr. 10 @ VAN, the fourth post-season berth in club history.

A RECORD-BREAKING SEASON

The Ducks set club-records in wins (43) and points (98), eclipsing the previous marks of 40 and 95, respectively, set in 2002-2003…Anaheim's 26 wins at HOME (26-10-5) also set a club-record, breaking the record of 23 in 1996-97 (23-12-6)…the Ducks also set club-records for goals scored with 251 (not including team goals awarded in shootouts) and power play goals with 87…all of these marks were broken again the next season (2006-2007).

STEADY CLIMB

On Jan. 13, the Ducks were 10th in the Western Conference (19-16-7, 45 points) and eight points out of the last playoff spot (occupied at the time by Colorado)...from that point on, Anaheim had a record of 24-11-5 for 53 points…the Ducks became just the fourth NHL team to qualify for the playoffs when trailing the 8th place position by 8 points-or-more anytime after Jan. 1…the first three teams to do so were the NY Islanders (1993-94 – finished 7th) , Ottawa Senators (1996-97 – finished 7th) & Vancouver Canucks (2001-2002 – finished 8th)…the San Jose Sharks followed suit by becoming the fifth such team to accomplish the feat…the NHL standings switched to the current format in 1992-93.

ANOTHER GREAT SEASON

Ducks Captain Scott Niedermayer established then career highs in points, assists and games played with 13-50=63 points in 82 games in 2005-2006...his assist and point totals were new franchise records for a defenseman (records he broke again the following season)...Niedermayer finished the season ranked 6th in the NHL in points and T-4th in assists by a defenseman...in his Norris Trophy winning season of 2003-04, Niedermayer scored 14-40=54 points in 81 games...in January, he was named to Canada's Olympic Team but elected not to play so he could have arthroscopic knee surgery during the Olympic Break... after the Olympic Break, he scored 4-17=21 points in 25 games in leading the Ducks to a 16-8-1 record... he was one of four Ducks' players to play in every game, marking the first time in his career he played all 82 games.

FLASHY FINN

Ducks right wing Teemu Selanne scored 40-50=90 points in 80 games with a +28 rating…he led the Ducks in goals, points, plus/minus, power play goals (18) and shooting percentage (15.0%)…after leading Finland to the Silver Medal at the 2006 Winter Olympics (was named best forward in the tournament), Selanne had 14-22=36 points with a +8 rating in his last 25 games (only Thornton and Cheechoo of SJ had more points)… his 40 goals are the most he scored in one season since 1998-1999, when he scored 47...he finished the season ranked T-13th in the NHL in points, T-10th in goals.

POSTSEASON NOTES IN PLAYOFF SECTION

DUCKS COMPLETE BEST SEASON IN TEAM HISTORY:

The Mighty Ducks finished the 2002-2003 season with a record of 40-27-9-6 for 95 points, good for 2nd in the Pacific Division and 7th in the Western Conference (tied in points with Minnesota, who earned the #6 seed by virtue of two more wins)…Anaheim set club records for wins and points in one season, surpassing the old records held by the 1996-97 Ducks (36-33-13 for 85 points)...the Ducks also finished 13 games over .500, after never being more that five games over .500 at any point during a season until this year (high-water mark was 14 games over, 40-26-9-5 after winning Apr. 1 @ NSH)…the Ducks clinched their third playoff berth in team history (also '97 & '99) on Mar. 24, when Calgary defeated Phoenix at the Saddledome...about 90 minutes later that evening the Ducks made the Phoenix loss moot, completing a 5-0 shutout vs. Columbus at –the Pond.

THESE CLUB RECORDS ALSO FELL:

The Ducks had their most successful season both at home and on the road…Anaheim finished 18-17-2-4 for 42 points on the road this season, the first season at or above .500 in team history away from home…the Ducks broke the mark for road points by earning their 42nd on Apr. 1 @ Nashville (1993-94 team had 41 points with a 19-20-3 record)…Anaheim finished just one win short of the road win record, also held by the 1993-94 team...at home, the Ducks broke the team record for points with 53, going 22-10-7-2...Anaheim finished one win shy of tying the club record for home victories (both HOME records were set in 1996-97, 23-12-6 for 52 points)...the Ducks also broke club records for lowest GAA (2.32, previous record was 2.39 set 2001-2002), fewest goals allowed (193, record was 198 set 2001-2002), power play goals allowed (42, record was 46 set 2001-2002) and penalty killing percentage (87.4%, record was 86.1% set 2001-2002).

QUITE A TURNAROUND STORY IN ANAHEIM:

1995-96 SEASON:

Final Record: 35-39-8, 78 points (fourth, Pacific)... nearly qualified for a Western Conference playoff spot (the Ducks actually finished tied-for-8th in the conference with Winnipeg, but lost the tie breaker because the Jets had more wins)...Anaheim's 35 wins and 78 points marked new club records for one season...the Mighty Ducks finished out the season strong, going 6-1-1 in their last eight games and 12-3-2 in their last 17 games...the Ducks did a lot of their late-season damage at home, going 11-1-2 in their last 14 home games…Anaheim also had a 15-6-3 record in the last 24 contests and a 17-8-3 record in the last 28...the Ducks went 33-31-8 over the last 72 games after starting the season 2-8-0...the Mighty Ducks' home record was 22-15-4 (22 home wins was a franchise record for one season)...Anaheim ended the season with a club-record nine-game home unbeaten streak (8-0-1)...the Ducks went 11-1-2 in their last 14 at the Arrowhead Pond and 13-5-3 in their last 21... road record was 13-23-4...Anaheim had one of the best records in the NHL since March 1 (12-4-3); the second-best in the Western Conference… the Mighty Ducks earned 34.6% of their points on the season in the team's 19 games after March 1...Paul Kariya became the first Mighty Duck to make First Team NHL All Star, earning a spot on the 1995-96 squad at left wing. He also won the Lady Byng Trophy for the first time in his career... Here are a few facts of how Anaheim's acquisition of Teemu Selanne affected the Mighty Ducks… after Feb. 7, the day the trade went down: Anaheim earned a record of 17-9-3 (11-1-2 at home, 6-8-1 on the road)...the team earned club-records in overall winning streak (six games, Mar. 8-22), home winning streak (five games, Mar. 8-Apr. 3), home unbeaten streak (Mar. 8-Apr. 14, 8-0-1) and overall unbeaten streak (seven games, 6-0-1, Mar. 10-24)... the Ducks' power play went 29-145 for a .200 success rate (team had only gone 31-281 for .110 before trade)...Anaheim had three hat tricks (two by Selanne, one by Garry Valk). The Ducks had only one in their history before the arrival of Selanne (Terry Yake - Oct. 19, 1993 @ NYR)...Selanne's offensive numbers with Anaheim were 16-20=36 points in 28 appearances (1.29 points-per-game)... Paul Kariya's offensive numbers were 21-23=44 points in 29 appearances (1.52 points-per-game) after Selanne joined Anaheim...The Mighty Ducks were one of only three NHL clubs (also Colorado and Pittsburgh) to finish with two players in the top eight scoring leaders in 1995-96 (Paul Kariya, 50-58=108 pts. and Teemu Selanne, 40-68=108 pts.)...Anaheim was one of only eight teams in the NHL with a .900-plus team save percentage (.906) and a team goals-against-average (GAA) below 3.00 (2.97)…Anaheim finished tied-for-fifth in the league in save percentage and 10th in the league in GAA…Anaheim goaltending combined for a .952 save percentage and 2.08 GAA in 19 games from March 1 to the end of the season…Individually, Guy Hebert finished fourth in the league in save percentage with .914 on the season and tied-for-fifth in the league in shutouts with four (three of which came in his last 14 games).

2008 DUCKS PLAYOFF NOTES

The Anaheim Ducks completed the 2007-08 regular season with a mark of 47-27-8 record for 102 points, finishing second in the Pacific Division and fourth in the Western Conference. The Ducks advanced to the NHL Playoffs for a franchise-record third consecutive season and faced the fifth-seed Dallas Stars for the second time in club postseason history. Holding home ice advantage, Anaheim lost Games 1 and 2 at Honda Center before earning its first win in Game 3 at American Airlines Center. A Game 4 loss in Dallas forced the Ducks into a must-win situation for the remainder of the series. Anaheim responded with a convincing victory in Game 5 before the 77th consecutive sellout at Honda Center but was eventually eliminated with a Game 6 loss in Dallas. It was just the second first-round exit in six NHL Playoffs for the Ducks and the first since the 1999 postseason. Center Ryan Getzlaf and defenseman Chris Pronger finished tied for the team scoring lead with 2-3=5 points each while right wing Teemu Selanne finished third with 2-2=4 points.

2007 DUCKS PLAYOFF NOTES

CUP IN CALIFORNIA:

By securing their first Stanley Cup championship in franchise history, the Anaheim Ducks also became the first team from California to win the Stanley Cup…their appearance in the Final marked just the fifth time since 1926 that a West Coast team competed for the Stanley Cup (also Vancouver (1982 & 1994), Los Angeles (1993) & Anaheim (2003))…the Ducks were the first West Coast team to win the Stanley Cup since the 1925 Victoria Cougars and the first U.S. team to win it since the 1917 Seattle Metropolitans.

KEEPING IT IN THE FAMILY:

Rob and Scott Niedermayer were the first set of brothers to win the Stanley Cup together since Brent and Duane Sutter won with the 1983 New York Islanders (they also won Cup with Islanders in 1982)…they were the first set of brothers to compete on the same team in the Stanley Cup Final since Rich and Ron Sutter played for the Philadelphia Flyers in the 1985 Final vs. the Edmonton Oilers (lost)...the Niedermayers were also the first brother combination on opposing clubs to appear in the Stanley Cup Final since 1946 when they met in the 2003 Stanley Cup Final.

YOUTH RAISE THE CUP:

The 2007 Champions had the largest contingency of players (11) in their first or second NHL year on one Stanley Cup roster…the 1986 Montreal Canadiens are the only team that comes close to the Ducks number of first or second year players on a Stanley Cup winning roster with 10…below is a list of Ducks that were in their first or second NHL season that played in at least one game with the club during their playoff run:

Ilya Bryzgalov

FOUR SCORE:

The Ducks were the first team since the 1989 Calgary Flames to have one player or fewer to have previously won the Stanley Cup…Scott Niedermayer was the only Ducks player who has previously won the Cup with the 1995, 2000 and 2003 New Jersey Devils…the 1989 Flames entered the Stanley Cup Final without a single player who had previously won a Cup.

ROOKIES CHIP IN:

The Ducks had five rookie players on their roster who competed in at least three 2007 playoff games…the last Stanley Cup championship team to have more than five rookies compete in at least three playoff games during a postseason run were the 1986 Montreal Canadiens, who had eight…below is a list of the rookies on the Ducks Stanley Cup winning roster that competed in at least three playoff games in 2007:

Ryan Carter
Kent Huskins
Drew Miller
Dustin Penner
Ryan Shannon

WASTING LITTLE TIME:

2006 DUCKS PLAYOFF STATS

DUCKS SET PLAYOFF TEAM MARKS:

The Ducks set a club record for goals in a playoff season, scoring 46 times in 2006…other notable team records set in 2006, were most goals in a playoff game (6 @ EDM on 5/25), goals in a period (4, twice in 2006), penalty minutes in a playoff season (267) and penalty minutes in a series (vs. CGY)…the club also tied the mark for playoff goals in a series (17, vs. CGY; also vs. PHX in 1997).

ROOKIES MAKE THEIR MARK:

Of the 128 team points (48-80=128) the Ducks scored during the postseason, Anaheim rookies accounted for 12-25=37 of them (28.9%)...the 37 rookie points were the most in one playoff year since the 1993 Los Angeles Kings had 40 rookie points...of the 16 goals the Ducks scored in the Western Conference Semifinals series versus Colorado, three were scored by rookies and all but three figured a rookie on the score sheet...the last time a team had six rookies play a game in the Conference Finals was the 1991 Boston Bruins (although only one, Jeff Lazaro, played all six games of the series).

TWO STILL PLAYING:

Anaheim was the only NHL organization to have both their NHL team and AHL affiliate reach each respective league's conference final...The Portland Pirates clinched the Atlantic Division Final Series, defeating the Hartford Wolfpack four games to two to advance to the Eastern Conference Final, where they fell to the Hershey Bears 4-3.

SIX IN A ROW:

With their Western Conference Semifinal series-clinching win in Game 4 (May 11) versus COL, the Ducks tied the franchise record for consecutive playoff victories with six...the record was set during the 2003 postseason from 4/10/03-4/26/03...the Ducks swept Detroit in the conference quarterfinals and won their first two games at Dallas in the conference semifinals.

13 UNANSWERED:

The Ducks scored 13 unanswered goals, from Game 6 (May 1) versus Calgary in the Western Conference Quarterfinals to Game 3 (May 9) versus Colorado in the Western Conference Semifinals... the Flames scored at 10:18 of the first period and the Ducks scored 13 goals without allowing a goal against until Dan Hinote scored at 19:33 of the first period in Game 3...The last team to score 13 or more unanswered goals in the postseason was Detroit with 14 from 5/15/95-5/23/95.

MARCHANT TIES RECORD:

Ducks center Todd Marchant tied the club record for most assists in a playoff game with three in Game 4 (May 25) of the Western Conference Finals at Edmonton...the feat had been accomplished three times previously (Dustin Penner, 5/9/06 @ COL, Steve Rucchin, 4/21/99 @ DET and Petr Sykora, 4/26/03 @ DAL).

NOBODY BEATS THE BRYZ:

Ilya Bryzgalov tied an NHL record with three consecutive shutouts (done five times previously) in Game 7 of the Conference Quarterfinals versus Calgary (May 3), Game 1 (May 5) and Game 2 (May 7) of the Conference Semifinal versus Colorado... In addition Bryzgalov's shutout sequence of 249:15, is the second-longest in NHL postseason history and is the longest ever by a rookie. Gerry McNeil previously held the rookie record at 218:42...Bryzgalov stopped 98 consecutive shots.

LONGEST SHUTOUT SEQUENCE BY A GOALTENDER IN ONE PLAYOFF YEAR:

Streak	Goaltender	Team	Dates
270:08	George Hainsworth	Canadiens	3/28-4/3, 1930
249:15	Ilya Bryzgalov	Ducks	5/3-5/7, 2006
248:35	Dave Kerr	Rangers	3/25-4/6, 1937
248:32	Normie Smith	Red Wings	3/24-28, 1936
218:42	Gerry McNeil	Canadiens	3/27-31, 1951
217:54	J.S. Giguere	Ducks	5/5-16, 2003

FIRST IN 61 YEARS:

In Game 1 (May 5) versus COL, Ducks goaltender Ilya Bryzgalov became the first rookie to record consecutive shutouts in the playoffs since 1945...the last rookie goaltender to post consecutive shutouts in the postseason was Toronto's Frank McCool in April of 1945…McCool had three consecutive shutouts versus Detroit on April 6, 8 and 12...Bryzgalov tied him for the rookie record.

ANOTHER ONE FOR BRYZ:

Ilya Bryzgalov is only the fourth rookie goaltender to win all four games of a playoff series sweep... the others are Chicago's Tony Esposito in 1970 vs. Detroit; Montreal's Jacques Plante in 1954 vs. Boston; Montreal's Bill Durnan in the 1944 Stanley Cup Finals versus Chicago.

2006 DUCKS PLAYOFF STATS

BRYZ SHUTS THE DOOR:

Ilya Bryzgalov's shutout in Game 7 (May 3) of the Western Conference Quarterfinals at Calgary was the first shutout by a rookie in a Game 7 since May 15, 1993, when Felix Potvin of Toronto shutout St. Louis...in addition, it was only the third shutout in a Game 7 by a rookie in NHL history as the New York Islanders' Chico Resch was the first goalie to do so in 1975 at Pittsburgh...Bryzgalov led the NHL in GAA (1.46), SV% (.944) and shutouts (3).

SELANNE WITH ANOTHER DUCK RECORD:

Ducks right wing Teemu Selanne had points in seven straight playoff games (Apr. 23-May 5), scoring 4-5=9 points, tying a club record for longest playoff point streak (also, Dmitri Mironov (0-8=8 points), Apr. 24-May 8, 1997).

PENNER IN THE FRANCHISE RECORD BOOK:

With three assists in Game 3 (May 9) of the Conference Semifinals versus Colorado, Ducks left wing Dustin Penner tied the franchise record for most assists in a playoff game (done twice previously, Steve Rucchin, 4/21/99 @ DET and Petr Sykora, 4/26/03 @ DAL)...his three assists are the first ever recorded by a rookie in a single playoff game in team history.

RALLY:

Anaheim's Western Conference Quarterfinal win versus Calgary marked the second time the club has ever rallied from a series deficit to win (also 1997, down 3-2 vs. PHX, won series 4-3).

DECIDING RECORD:

With their 3-0 victory in Game 7 (May 3) of the Western Conference Quarterfinal at Calgary, the Ducks improved their record in Game 7s to 2-1...the win at Calgary was the Ducks' first series clinching game on the road...in their first ever Game 7 (April 29) versus Phoenix in the 1997 Conference Quarterfinals, the Ducks won 3-0...in Game 7 (June 9) of the 2003 Stanley Cup Finals, the Ducks dropped a 3-0 decision to the New Jersey Devils.

PERFECT IN GAME 6:

With a 2-1 victory in Game 6 (May 1) in Anaheim, the Ducks extended their perfect record in Game 6s to four games...below is a list:

Date	Series	Opponent Score
May 1, 2006	CQF vs. CGY	W, 2-1
June 7, 2003	SCF vs. NJ	W, 5-2
May 5, 2003	CSF vs. DAL	W, 4-3
April 27, 1997	CQF @ PHX	W, 3-2 (OT)

TWO FOR THE ROOKIES:

Mighty Ducks defenseman Francois Beauchemin's two goals (both PPGs) in Game 3 of the Western Conference Quarterfinals set a club record for goals in a playoff game by a rookie...in addition, he tied the club record for most goals in a playoff game (eight times previously), most goals by a defenseman in a playoff game (J.J. Daigneault, Game 2 of CQF, April 18, 1997) and most power play goals in a playoff game (Adam Oates, Game 4 of WCF, May 16, 2003)...Dustin Penner tied the record with two goals in Game 4 (May 25) of the Western Conference Finals.

OH WHAT A NIGHT:

In Game 3 (May 9) at Colorado in the Western Conference Semifinals, Joffrey Lupul scored all four of the Ducks goals, including the game-winner in overtime...in doing so, he became the first player in NHL playoff history to score four goals, including the overtime winner...the four-goal game was the first ever by a Ducks player in the postseason or regular season...he's the first player to account for all four of his team's goals in a win since Maurice "Rocket" Richard did so on March 23, 1944...the feat had been accomplished twice previously...prior to Lupul's four goals, the last player to score four goals in a playoff game was Theo Fleury on May 13, 1995 for the Flames in a 6-4 win over San Jose...below is a list of players to account for all four of their teams goals:

PLAYERS TO SCORE 4+ GOALS, ACCOUNTING FOR ALL HIS TEAM'S GOALS (NHL PLAYOFF HISTORY)

Date	Teams	Goals
05/09/2006	ANA 4 vs COL 3	Joffrey Lupul 4 (win)

03/23/1944	MTL 5 vs TOR 1	Rocket Richard 5 (win)
03/22/1919	MTL 4 at SEA 2	Newsy Lalonde 4 (win)

LUPUL'S BIG NIGHT:

Ducks right wing Joffrey Lupul became the first Ducks player to score four goals in a playoff or regular season game...in addition, Lupul broke the playoff record for goals in a series; he had six in four games in the Western Conference Semifinal series versus Colorado (Paul Kariya and Teemu Selanne each had five goals in the 1997 Conference Quarterfinals versus Phoenix, seven games)...he has also eclipsed the record for goals in a playoff season with nine (seven was the previous record, done three times: Paul Kariya and Teemu Selanne in 1997, 11 games; and Steve Rucchin, 2003, 21 games)...his three-game goal streak (6-0=6) from May 7-11, is the longest goal streak in club playoff history.

2003 DUCKS PLAYOFF NOTES

DUCKS CAPTURE FIRST WESTERN CONFERENCE CHAMPIONSHIP:

The Ducks finished the 2003 playoffs with a record of 15-6, recording the highest winning percentage in the NHL (.714)…the Ducks had a 9-1 record at home during the playoffs, second only to New Jersey's 12-1 mark…Anaheim swept the Minnesota Wild to win the Western Conference Championship, advancing to the Stanley Cup Finals for the first time in club history…the Ducks became the second post 1990's expansion team to reach the Finals, following the Florida Panthers in 1996 (vs. Colorado)… since the NHL assumed control of the Stanley Cup Finals after the 1926 season, the Ducks were only the fourth team in league history from the Pacific Time Zone to reach the Finals (Vancouver in 1994 and 1982, Los Angeles in 1993).

TEAM DEFENSE LEADS TO NHL RECORD:

The Ducks set an NHL record in their Western Conference Finals series vs. Minnesota, allowing the fewest goals against in a best-of-7 series by allowing just a single marker to the Wild...Andrew Brunette scored at 4:37 of the first period in Game Four to notch the first Minnesota goal...the 1935 Toronto Maple Leafs and 1952 Detroit Red Wings each surrendered two goals in four-game series.

OVERTIME MAGIC FOR DUCKS IN 2003:

The Ducks went 7-0 in overtime in the 2003 playoffs, becoming the first team in NHL playoff history to go undefeated in OT when playing in at least six such contests…the seven consecutive overtime wins was second only to the 1993 Canadiens (10) for consecutive OT wins during one playoff season (Montreal finished 10-1 in OT)… Anaheim was the first team in NHL history to win four games in overtime in their first six postseason contests (Ducks were also the sixth team in NHL history to PLAY in four OT games in the first six playoff contests...the Ducks also became the first team since the 1994 Vancouver Canucks (April 26-30) to win three straight playoff games in overtime (no team has ever won four straight)...the Ducks won three straight spanning Game 4 of the conference Quarter-Finals (Apr. 16) and Games 1 & 2 of the conference Semi-Finals (Apr. 24-26)…the Ducks had six different goal scorers in the seven overtime games (Sykora had two; Kariya, Rucchin, Leclerc, Thomas and Salei had one).

DUCKS TAKE CARE OF BUSINESS AT HOME:

The Ducks finished 9-1 at home in the playoffs, including seven-straight home wins to end the postseason (second longest of '03 playoffs, behind New Jersey's eight)…the club's only loss was a 2-1 setback to Dallas in Game 3 of the Conf. Semifinals…the Ducks earned a record of 3-1 in Game 3, 4-0 in Game Four and 2-0 in Game 6…the club out-scored the opposition 26-to-13 at home this postseason… the Ducks allowed one-goal-or-fewer on five occasions.

WINNING THE CLOSE ONES:

The Ducks had a remarkable 12-1 record in the 2003 playoffs in games decided by one goal-or-less… the 12 one-goal wins tied the most in league history during one playoff year (also 1993 Canadiens)... The Ducks two-goal win in Game 1 of the Western Conference Finals broke a string of nine consecutive wins by a one-goal margin (4/10/03 - 5/10/03), which broke the record for one playoff year...the previous record was seven, done twice before (1989 Canadiens and 2001 Kings)...five of the games needed overtime to be decided… the Ducks eight consecutive one-goal decisions to start the playoffs tied the record for one playoff year (1989 Canadiens).

MOST 1-GOAL WINS IN A SINGLE POST SEASON:

Year	W	L
1993 Montreal Canadiens	12	1
2003 Mighty Ducks of Anaheim	12	1
2000 Dallas Stars	10	4
2000 New Jersey Devils	9	5
2002 Carolina Hurricanes	9	4

PLAYOFF SPECIAL TEAMS:

The Ducks went 8-for-70 (11.4%) overall on the power play in the postseason (ranking 13th)...the club was 61-for-70 (87.1%) on the penalty kill (ranking fifth)…Anaheim scored its first-ever shorthanded goal in a playoff game in Game 1 @ DAL (4/24/03 - Rob Niedermayer) and had three in the playoffs (tied for most in NHL with Ottawa).

OFF AND RUNNING:

The Ducks began the playoffs on a six-game winning streak, which was the longest of the 2003 playoffs….by going 6-0 vs. Detroit and Dallas, Anaheim became the first team in NHL history to win six-straight games to start the playoffs vs. teams that had over 100+ points in the regular season...in addition, the Ducks joined the former Minnesota North Stars (now Dallas Stars) as the only teams in NHL history to start the postseason as a road team and win six-straight...the North Stars won six straight from April 8-19, 1981.

1997 DUCKS PLAYOFF NOTES

After defeating Phoenix in the first round, Anaheim was matched up with the number three seed in the West, the Detroit Red Wings. The Mighty Ducks had defeated the Red Wings, 3-0-1, in the regular season series. The playoff series between the two would have a different result, with Detroit winning the first four games, eliminating Anaheim from the 1997 Stanley Cup Playoffs. Though Detroit officially earned a sweep in the series, it was a lot closer than the numbers would indicate. Three of the games went into overtime, including one that went into double overtime and one that went into triple overtime. The goaltenders were the stars of the series, with Guy Hebert, Mikhail Shtalenkov and Mike Vernon combining for 333 total saves on 354 total shots (.941 SV%). Paul Kariya (2-2=4) and Dmitri Mironov (0-4=4) led Anaheim in scoring for the playoff series while Sergei Fedorov (2-3=5), Vyacheslav Kozlov (3-1=4), and Vladimir Konstantinov (0-4=4) led Detroit in scoring.

score midway through the third period, with Sergei Fedorov scoring his first goal of the post-season, sending the game into overtime. Fedorov's goal was Detroit's first goal vs. Anaheim since March 12 at the Arrowhead Pond, snapping the Mighty Ducks' shutout streak vs. the Red Wings at 145:13. The goal was also the first allowed by Hebert in the playoffs since Game 6 of the Quarterfinals @ Phoenix (a span of 120:46). In the extra period, Martin Lapointe scored on a two-on-one break just 59 seconds into overtime to give the Red Wings the 2-1 win. Guy Hebert stopped 28-of-30 shots, taking the loss.

GAME TWO @ DETROIT (MAY 4), DETROIT 3, ANAHEIM 2 (3 OT):

The Mighty Ducks played the longest game in team history (since surpassed), going into three overtime periods before dropping a 3-2 decision to the Red Wings. Vyacheslav Kozlov scored a power play goal at the 1:31 mark of the third overtime to give Detroit the win. There were 101:31 minutes of hockey played in the game that began at 2:08 p.m. and ended at 7:39 p.m. The two clubs combined for 122 shots (Wings - 71, Ducks - 51), the third-most shots by two teams in NHL playoff history. Detroit's 71 shots rank third all-time for one team. These rankings are since 1963 - the earliest year Elias Sports Bureau can research the stat. Kozlov's power play goal marked Detroit's first goal with a man-advantage vs. Anaheim this season (the Ducks had stopped all 22 Wings power plays faced this season before Kozlov's score). Mikhail Shtalenkov stopped 38-of-40 shots in relief of Guy Hebert, who left the game due to injury (Shtalenkov entered the game at the 7:02 mark of the third period). Jari Kurri scored his first goal of the playoffs while Teemu Selanne added his sixth of the post-season with just 3:07 left in regulation to send the game into overtime.

GAME THREE @ ANAHEIM (MAY 6), DETROIT 5, ANAHEIM 3:

The Red Wings came back from deficits of 2-0 and 3-1 to take a 5-3 win in Game Three at the Arrowhead Pond. Anaheim took an early 2-0 lead on power play goals from Paul Kariya and Teemu Selanne in the first period. Ted Drury scored early in the second to give Anaheim a 3-1 lead, but the Red Wings scored two goals to knot the score at three entering the third period. Detroit outshot Anaheim, 23-6, in the second period and 49-23 in the game. Sergei Fedorov and Vyacheslav Kozlov scored two goals just 24 seconds apart at the beginning of the third to give the Wings their third win of the series. Kariya (1-1=2) and J.J. Daigneault (0-2=2) had multiple-point games for the Mighty Ducks. Mikhail Shtalenkov, starting in place of injured Guy Hebert, stopped 44-of-49 shots in the loss (career-highs in both saves and shots until Game Four).

GAME FOUR @ ANAHEIM (MAY 8), DETROIT 3, ANAHEIM 2 (2 OT):

The Red Wings defeated the Mighty Ducks, 3-2 in double overtime, to sweep the best-of-seven series, 4-0. Joe Sacco and Brian Bellows each scored their first goals of the series to give Anaheim a 2-1 lead after two periods. Nicklas Lidstrom scored for Detroit at the 9:09 mark of the third period, sending the game into overtime. After a scoreless first overtime, Brendan Shanahan scored the game-winner for the Red Wings at the 17:05 mark of the second overtime, sending Detroit to the Western Conference Finals for the third-straight season. Paul Kariya picked up an assist, giving him 2-2=4 points in the series and 7-6=13 points in the playoffs to lead the Mighty Ducks. Dmitri Mironov assisted on Brian Bellows' goal, finishing second on the club with 1-10=11 points. Ken Baumgartner assisted on Sacco's goal, earning his first point of the post-season. Mikhail Shtalenkov stopped 70-of-73 shots in the loss. The 70 saves rank tied-for-second for saves in one NHL playoff game (record is 73) while Detroit's 73 shots rank second all-time for one NHL playoff game (record is 75). These rankings are since 1963 - the earliest year Elias Sports Bureau can research the stat. Over the final three games of the series, Shtalenkov faced 162 shots (54 shots per game), stopping 152 (.938 SV%).
